Division Director, Bobby Cagle, will be leaving his position in November. The interim Director will be Ginger Pryor.

The current budget for staffing in Region 2 will not support the current staffing level and the shortfall is to be made up through attrition. Two of three local vacancies were filled before this change and the third will not be filled. The budget for client services will also be monitored closely.

The Hall County director moved to another position at the end of September and an interim director is currently managing the county.

Staff saw all foster children this month by October 20th to meet a state directive ensuring safety.

The Hart County office was host to a two-week new employee training class in September.

There was a shooting in the agency parking lot at the beginning of the month. Staff were not involved, and no one was hurt. The shooter was arrested.

The annual board report was discussed and reviewed. The approved report was signed by Earnestine White.

No further business, meeting adjourned. The next Board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 24th, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.
