I. GENERAL INFORMATION FOR BIDDERS

Hart County Reserves the right to reject any and all bids, further negotiate with one or more bidders, and waive any technicalities or informalities if it is deemed in the best interest of the County. Hart County assumes no responsibility in the costs incurred by the bidder in preparing a response.

It is the bidder's responsibility to verify that all quantities and specifications are met to perform the work as specified herein, before submitting their bid. Price submitted shall include all labor and materials for completion of the work. In the event of a conflict between these specifications and any referenced specifications, the higher quality specification shall supersede. Qualities listed are approximate and may be varied at the discretion of the Owner.

All measurements given on the list of work to be done are approximate. It is the contractor's responsibility to verify all quantities and measurements necessary to perform the work as specified herein, before submitting their bid.

Bidders must bid the entire project. The County may choose to award any combination of the items or all of the items. The prices submitted will include all costs including screen-printing, overhead, profit, taxes (if applicable), etc... so that each item can be independently awarded depending on the amount of funds available.

Bids submitted and prices submitted shall be valid for 90 days after submittal of bids. After this 90 day period, the bidder has the right to withdraw his/her pricing or be awarded the work at the bid price should the County choose to award this work. If only one bid is received, the County may choose to not open the bid and solicit additional bids prior to opening all bids in a public meeting.

The Contractor shall be responsible for all damage or injury to property of any character resulting from any act, omission, negligence, or misconduct in the prosecution of the work. When any direct or indirect damage or injury is done to private or public property by or on account of any act, omission, negligence or misconduct in the execution of the work, the Contractor shall either restore at his/her own expense such property to a condition similar or equal to that existing before such damage or injury occurred; or shall make good such damage or injury in a manner acceptable to the owner of the damaged property and to the County.

If unit prices are required to be submitted with bid, these unit prices will be applied to any changes that occur in the project as directed by the owner through a formal change order. The unit prices submitted will include all expenses including engineering, profit, overhead or any other expenses occurring with the charged unit. Changes/unit prices will apply to both additions and deletions of work.

II. INTERPRETATIONS OR ADDENDA

Any questions concerning this invitation should be directed via fax or emailed to:

Jim Owens
200 Clay Street
Hartwell, GA 30643
Fax: 706-376-5344
jowens@hartcountyga.gov

Hart County reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to further negotiate with one or more bidders, and to waive any technicalities and informalities, and to accept the bid deemed to be in the best interest of the County.

No oral changes or interpretations shall be made to any bidder regarding the Bid Documents or any part thereof. Every request for an interpretation shall be made in writing via fax or mail to the contact information above.

Any inquiry received five or more days prior to the date fixed for acceptance of bids will be given consideration and addressed to all known bidders in the form of an Addendum. Any changes or interpretations to the specification shall also be in the form of an Addendum to the Bid Documents. All Addenda will be faxed and mailed to each person holding bid documents, but it shall be the bidder's responsibility to make inquiries as to the Addenda issued. All such Addenda shall become part of the Bid Documents and all bidders shall be bound by such Addenda, whether or not received by the bidders. It shall be the bidder's responsibility to ensure delivery of any and all requests for interpretations.
